FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: 02/12/2021

On February 11, 2021, at approximately 6:53 PM, officers of the Madison Police Department responded to the parking lot of the Lowes Store on Grandview Boulevard in Madison for a report of a domestic disturbance in progress.

As officers arrived on the scene, they learned that a male and female subject had exited a vehicle in the parking lot and were arguing. During the argument the male subject allegedly struck the female several times. The male subject then entered the vehicle, which belonged to the female, and fled the scene with the female subject's 1-year old child in the backseat. As the male subject exited the parking lot in the vehicle and proceeded to the intersection of Grandview Boulevard and Highway 463, he disregarded the traffic light and entered the intersection colliding with another vehicle. At this time officers were arriving at the crash location where they took the male subject into custody and administered aid to the child and others involved in the crash.

The child was transported to Batson Children's Hospital for non-life-threatening injuries. There were no other injuries as a result of the crash. The female victim was treated for minor injuries received during the incident. The male subject, identified as Keith L. Green, age 25, of Lauderhill, FL, has initially been charged with Simple Domestic Violence and numerous traffic violations. Additional charges of Kidnapping and Unauthorized Taking/Possession of a Motor Vehicle are pending. Green was transported to and is currently being housed at the Madison County Detention Center.
