Felony Fleeing in Stolen Vehicle

On January 24, 2025 just after 9:00PM, a Madison police officer while patrolling Interstate 55, spotted a 2019 Black Kia Soul that was reported stolen out of the City of Jackson on January 23rd. The officer attempted to initiate a traffic stop on the Kia Soul around mile-marker 109. The Kia Soul then continued south on Interstate 55 in an attempt to flee law enforcement.

The Kia Soul exited the interstate at mile-marker 107 where another Madison police officer successfully deployed spike strips and the Kia Soul came to a final rest at the West Frontage Road and Colony Park intersection in Ridgeland city limits. Three black males exited the vehicle and began running from officers. With the assistance of Ridgeland Police Department and the Rankin County Sheriff's Department, all three
