FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: 10/03/2024

On October 02, 2024 Investigators of the Madison Police Department responded to the accident on Cobblestone Drive and Rockwood Drive in the City of Madison. There have been several rumors being circulated via social media regarding the possible intoxication of the bus driver. As is standard procedure with any fatal accident being investigated, the Madison Police Department had a DUI/Drug Recognition Expert on the scene as part of the investigation. There are no preliminary indicators that would lead investigators to believe that the driver was impaired; however, toxicology samples have been submitted for examination and the department is awaiting the results. The Madison Police Department takes this matter very serious and we want the public to know that a thorough investigation is being conducted. As stated earlier, the findings will be forwarded to the Madison/Rankin District Attorney's Office. We ask for continued prayers for the family, friends, students, school staff, and first responders.
