8. NOTICE AND ORDERS

- a. Notice of Violation; Orders to Comply. Whenever the Building Official determines that there has been a violation of the provisions of RIPLA or has grounds to believe that a violation may have occurred based on a complaint filed by a Tenant or any City department to that effect, he/she shall give fifteen (15) days' notice of such alleged violation and orders to comply to the Owner or registered agent. 9. ENFORCEMENT

- a. Repair by City. If, having received written notice of a violation, the Owner fails to comply with the correction orders within the time set for correction by the Building Official, and takes no appeal, the City may, by resolution, cause the cited deficiency to be remedied as set forth in such correction orders by authorizing the Building Official to complete the necessary repairs, alterations, or improvements and charge the expenses incurred therefor to the Owner.
- b. Reimbursement by Owner. The Owner of a Rental Unit, Dwelling Unit, Dwelling, or Premises that is repaired, altered, or improved by the Building Official pursuant to an authorizing resolution shall reimburse the City for the expenses incurred therefor within ten (10) days after receiving a statement of expenses from the Building Official. Thereafter, within thirty (30) days, the Owner shall replenish such surety with an additional bond, collateral, or letter of credit in an amount necessary to meet the requirements of RIPLA.

- c. Liens. If the Owner's surety is insufficient in amount to reimburse the City for expenses incurred for completing repairs, alterations, or improvements, such expenses may be assessed against the real estate upon which such repairs, alterations, or improvements were completed. Upon filing the statement of expenses with the County Clerk, the City shall have a privileged lien on such real estate to secure such expenses. Such lien shall be second only to tax liens, and the amount thereof shall bear interest at the rate of ten (10) percent per annum from the date of payment by the City of such expenses. The City may institute suit to foreclose on such lien to recover such expenses. Neither the completion of repairs, alterations, or improvements by the City, nor the foreclosure of any lien to recover expenses incurred therefor, shall relieve the Owner from prosecution for failure to comply with RIPLA or correction orders given by the Building Official.
- d. Warrant Requirement. If the owner or tenant of any premises refuse entry upon request of City officials to carry out inspections incident to enforcement of this Ordinance, the City may make application to the appropriate judicial officer for a warrant based upon constitutional standards in effect at the time of the application, and shall not make entry in absence of consent, lawful warrant, or other legal authority.

10. TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP

- a. Notification to City; New Owner's Obligations. If an Owner sells or otherwise conveys his/her interest in a Dwelling for which a Rental License is currently issued, the new Owner shall notify the City within thirty (30) days after such sale or conveyance and provide the City with all information required of the original Owner on the application for such Rental License. The new Owner shall also post a bond, collateral, or letter of credit as surety for any future correction orders issued by the Building Official, in the same amount as was required of the original Owner, and designate a new registered agent to receive notices and service of process and who is authorized to grant consent for the City to inspect the Premises, Dwelling, Dwelling Units, and Rental Units.
- b. Disclosure of Violations and Uncured Orders. It shall be unlawful for the Owner of any Dwelling who has received a notice of violation and orders to comply pertaining to such Dwelling, which violation remains uncured, to sell or otherwise convey his/her interest in such Dwelling unless he/she has furnished the vendee or grantee a copy of such notice and orders to comply and has given the Building Official a notarized statement from the vendee or grantee acknowledging the receipt of the same and accepting legal responsibility for curing the violation.

11. SUSPENSION OF RENTAL LICENSE AND COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATE

- a. Cause. An Owner's Rental License for a Dwelling, and Certificate of Compliance for a Rental Unit, shall be suspended if, having received written notice of a violation, the Owner fails to comply with the corrective orders within the time set for correction by the Building Official and takes no appeal.
- b. Effect of Suspension. Notwithstanding any other provision for RIPLA, it shall not be unlawful for any Person to continue owning, operating, managing, or maintaining a Dwelling or Rental Unit whose Rental License or Certificate of Compliance, respectively, has been suspended, except as noted below. However, it shall be unlawful for such Person to permit any new occupancies of vacant, or thereafter vacant, Dwelling Units in such Dwelling, until such time as the Rental License and Certificate of Compliance are restored, and it shall be unlawful for any Person to continue owning, operating, managing, or maintaining a Dwelling or Rental Unit whose Rental License or Certificate of Compliance, respectively, has been suspended for failure to maintain a surety for repairs, or to give any notification required by RIPLA.
- c. Disconnection of Utilities. The Building Official may notify all public utility companies serving the Dwelling or Rental Unit that the Rental License and Certificate of Compliance have been suspended for violation for RIPLA, and request that all public utility services be discontinued for such Dwelling or Rental Unit until notice of compliance is received.

- d. Restoration. A suspended Rental License and Certificate of Compliance shall be restored upon compliance with the correction orders and request for restoration by the Owner.

12. RENTAL LICENSE FEE

- a. Rental License shall be issued until all requirements of RIPLA have been satisfied and payment made for such Rental License. The fee for a Rental License shall be five hundred dollars ($500) per Dwelling Unit, per year, and five hundred dollars ($500) per Dwelling as a whole, per year, and is non-refundable. Should payment be made by check or other instrument that is not honored, the Rental License for which such payment was made shall become null and void without additional action by the City. The fee shall be paid at the time the initial application is filed and at the time each renewal is filed. The fee for issuing a replacement or duplicate Rental License shall be one hundred dollars ($100). When a Rental License is updated to reflect the addition of Dwelling Units to a Dwelling, an additional fee for such Dwelling Units shall be paid, pro-rated for the remaining term of such Rental License.

13. APPEALS

- a. An Owner or Tenant who disagrees with a determination or order of the Building Official under RIPLA, which determination or order concerns his/her Premises, Dwelling, Dwelling Unit, or Rental Unit, may appeal such determination or order to the Board of Alderman. The appeal shall be filed within ten (10) days after notification of the decision or order is given to the aggrieved party. The appeal shall be in writing on a form provided by the City for such purpose, and shall state the reasons why the appellant disagrees with such determination or order.

14. EXEMPTIONS

A separate offense shall be deemed committed upon each day during or on which a violation occurs or continues.

16. NO WARRANTY BY CITY
